Strath Elections 2018: Aye Write Book Festival Terms & Conditions

By entering into our prize draw for tickets to the Aye Write Festival, the following general rules apply:

Only two tickets will be provided to one individual for either Professor Paul Goodwin's, The Science Behind Prediction with Professor Sir John Curtice, or the option for two tickets to one of the events within the Aye Con strand will be permitted.

You must have voted in the Strathclyde Student Elections.

Entry is open to Strathclyde University students only.

Prize will be drawn 24 hours after voting closes.

Only the winners will be contacted personally.

Winners will be notified by email.

As the events may be time sensitive, if we are unable to reach you by phone, we may re-draw the competition.

Entrants must provide the entry details as specified.

Entrants may be required to be 18 years of age or older.

Tickets to the events are not transferable.

No purchase necessary.

Voting is open to all Strathclyde students except (i) employees of the University, (ii) Staff members of the Students' Union (iii) the families of such employees or contributors.

No responsibility can be accepted for entries that are lost, delayed or damaged.

The closing date is March 8 at 4pm.

There is no cash alternative or offer and no other alternative tickets is available for request.

Winners may be required to take part in or co-operate with publicity for the use of the Union's social media channels.

No responsibility is accepted for inaccurate prize details supplied by sponsors.

Use of false name or address, i.e. name, by which the entrant is not usually known, will disqualify them from receiving any tickets.

The prize winners will be selected at random by Strathclyde Union. The Union's decision is final.

Entrants are deemed to have accepted these rules and to agree to be bound by them.
